IT-314 : Software Engineering
Group : 28
Lab 3 : User Stories

Sr No.	User Story	Acceptance Criteria
1)	Students can register on the website.	- Check if the student has already registered on the website. - It should have a domain email id of college. - Test with different ways of verification(OTP). - A strong password should be generated meeting the requirements.
2)	Students can login on the website and should have a feature for Forgot Password.	- The system should match the hash value of the password while signing in. - If the student clicks on Forgot Password, then the system should send a password reset link on the registered email id.
3)	Students can apply for a company.	- Students should be able to access profile and company details. - A student should be able to apply for a specific role in the company if he/she meets the criteria. - Once applied, the student should receive a confirmation mail for the same. - Once applied, the student should receive all the updates posted by the companies. - If the student has already received an offer, then he should be unable to apply.
4)	Students should be able to update their resumes.	The file should meet the criteria of file extension and file size.

5)	Students should be able to track their performance.	• Students should be able to see the status of an applied role in a company. • It should be updated in real time.
6)	Companies should be able to register on the website.	• Check if the company has already registered on the website. • It should have a valid email id. • Test with different ways of verification(OTP). • The entered url of the company website should be validated by the system. • A strong password should be generated meeting the requirements. • After registration , the admin will verify the company details.
7)	Companies should be able to login on the website and should have a feature for Forgot Password.	• The system should match the hash value of the password while signing in. • If the company clicks on Forgot Password, then the system should send a password reset link on the registered email id.
8)	Once verified, the company should be able to create a new job profile.	• Job profile details should be verified by the admin before displaying it to the students. • Job profile details should match the field criteria.

9)	Companies should be able to post announcements for their offered role to the students. There should be two options to post an announcement for all or to specific students.	• The announcements should only be notified to the registered students.
10)	Companies should be able to access all the profiles of students who have applied for their offered role.	• Only specific data of registered students should be displayed in the company interface.
11)	Admin should be able to login to the placement website to manage the placement website.	• The system should match the hash value of the password while signing in. • If the admin clicks on Forgot Password, then the system should send a password reset link on the admin email id.
12)	Admin should be able to change the password.	• The password reset link should be provided on the registered email id of admin.
13)	Admin should be able to verify registered companies and students.	• Once admin verifies, the company and students should be able to access the features of the website.

14)	Admin should be able to deregister any student or company which violates the guidelines.	• Once removed from the process, the student/company should not be able to continue the process.
15)	Admin should be able to post announcements to both the students and the companies.	• Announcements should only be displayed to the selected students and companies.